NUCLEAR ENERGY LIABILITY EXCLUSION ENDORSEMENT (BROAD FORM)

NUCLEAR ENERGY LIABILITY EXCLUSION ENDORSEMENT

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the HOMEOWNERS POLICY.

EXCLUSION

This policy does not apply: Under any Liability Coverage, to bodily injury or property damage with respect to which an insured under this policy is also an insured under a nuclear energy liability policy issued by Nuclear Energy Liability Insurance Association, Mutual Atomic Energy Liability Underwriters, Nuclear Insurance Association of Canada or any of their successors.

Under any Medical Payments Coverage, to expenses incurred with respect to bodily injury resulting from the hazardous properties of nuclear material, if the nuclear material is at any nuclear facility owned by, or operated by or on behalf of, an insured.

Under any Liability Coverage, to bodily injury or property damage resulting from the hazardous properties of nuclear material, if the nuclear material is at any nuclear facility owned by, or operated by or on behalf of, an insured.

DEFINITIONS

"Hazardous properties" includes radioactive, toxic or explosive properties of nuclear material.

"Nuclear material" means source material, special nuclear material or by-product material as those terms are defined in the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 or in any law amendatory thereof.

"Nuclear facility" means any nuclear reactor; any equipment or device designed or used for separating the isotopes of uranium or plutonium; any equipment or device used for the processing or utilizing of spent fuel; any structure, basin, excavation, premises or place prepared or used for the storage or disposal of waste nuclear material.

"Nuclear reactor" means any apparatus designed or used to sustain nuclear fission in a self-supporting chain reaction or to contain a critical mass of fissionable material.
